

YOUTH PARLIAMENT OF PAKISTAN (YPP) DELEGATION VISIT TO UNITED NATIONS REPORT 2024

President – Youth Parliament of Pakistan

Ubaid Ur Rehman is Engineer and Entrepreneur by profession, stated his journey with Youth Parliament as the Member & then leading to the city, provincial and national cabinet. He is a renowned Social, Political Youth Activist belonging to the Azad Kashmir.

I Am Youth; We Are Leaders, his vision as the President to empower the youth, by providing them opportunity to play role in the civil society through the Nation building, As a President Ubaid took several initiatives to raise up the level, due to his sincere struggle Youth Parliament of Pakistan got Affiliation with National Assembly of Pakistan through PIPS and YPF affiliation.

Milestone of his journey are:

Youth & Parliamentary Foreign Delegations.

Role of Youth in Foreign Policy of Pakistan, Cultural & Public Diplomacy.

Role of Youth in Parliamentary Reforms through the Young Engagement with Parliament.

International Youth Media and Parliamentary Forum (IMYPF).

Executive Member – Youth Parliament of Pakistan

Bakhtawar Mahmood is the next generation leader and is among the top 10 media management professionals of Pakistan, who are changing the industry landscape with innovation and foresight in line with the fourth industrial revolution. Currently, she is working as Head of Content & Digital Video Production at Media Sniffers and for Mega Stars League. Additionally, she is working as an Anchor/Presenter for New York Warriors- a Franchise of the US T10 Master league in the USA.

UN High Level Political Forum on Sustainable Development – (HLPF2024)

Delegates from the Youth Parliament of Pakistan (YPP), including President Ubaid ur Rehman Qureshi and Executive Member Bakhtawar Mahmood, attended the United Nations High-Level Political Forum on Sustainable Development at UN Headquarters in New York. The forum highlighted the urgent need to accelerate progress toward a sustainable, equitable, and resilient future for all.

The delegates reflected on successes, challenges, and lessons learned in pursuing the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and exchanged knowledge, best practices, and innovative solutions to drive transformative change at national and global levels.

In the face of complex and interconnected challenges such as climate change, biodiversity loss and inequality, our collective action is more crucial than ever. We must reaffirm our commitment to leaving no one behind and building back better in a post-pandemic world.

Ubaid ur Rehman Qureshi – VNR

By fostering partnerships, promoting inclusivity, and mobilizing resources effectively, we can overcome barriers and advance sustainable development in a holistic and integrated manner.

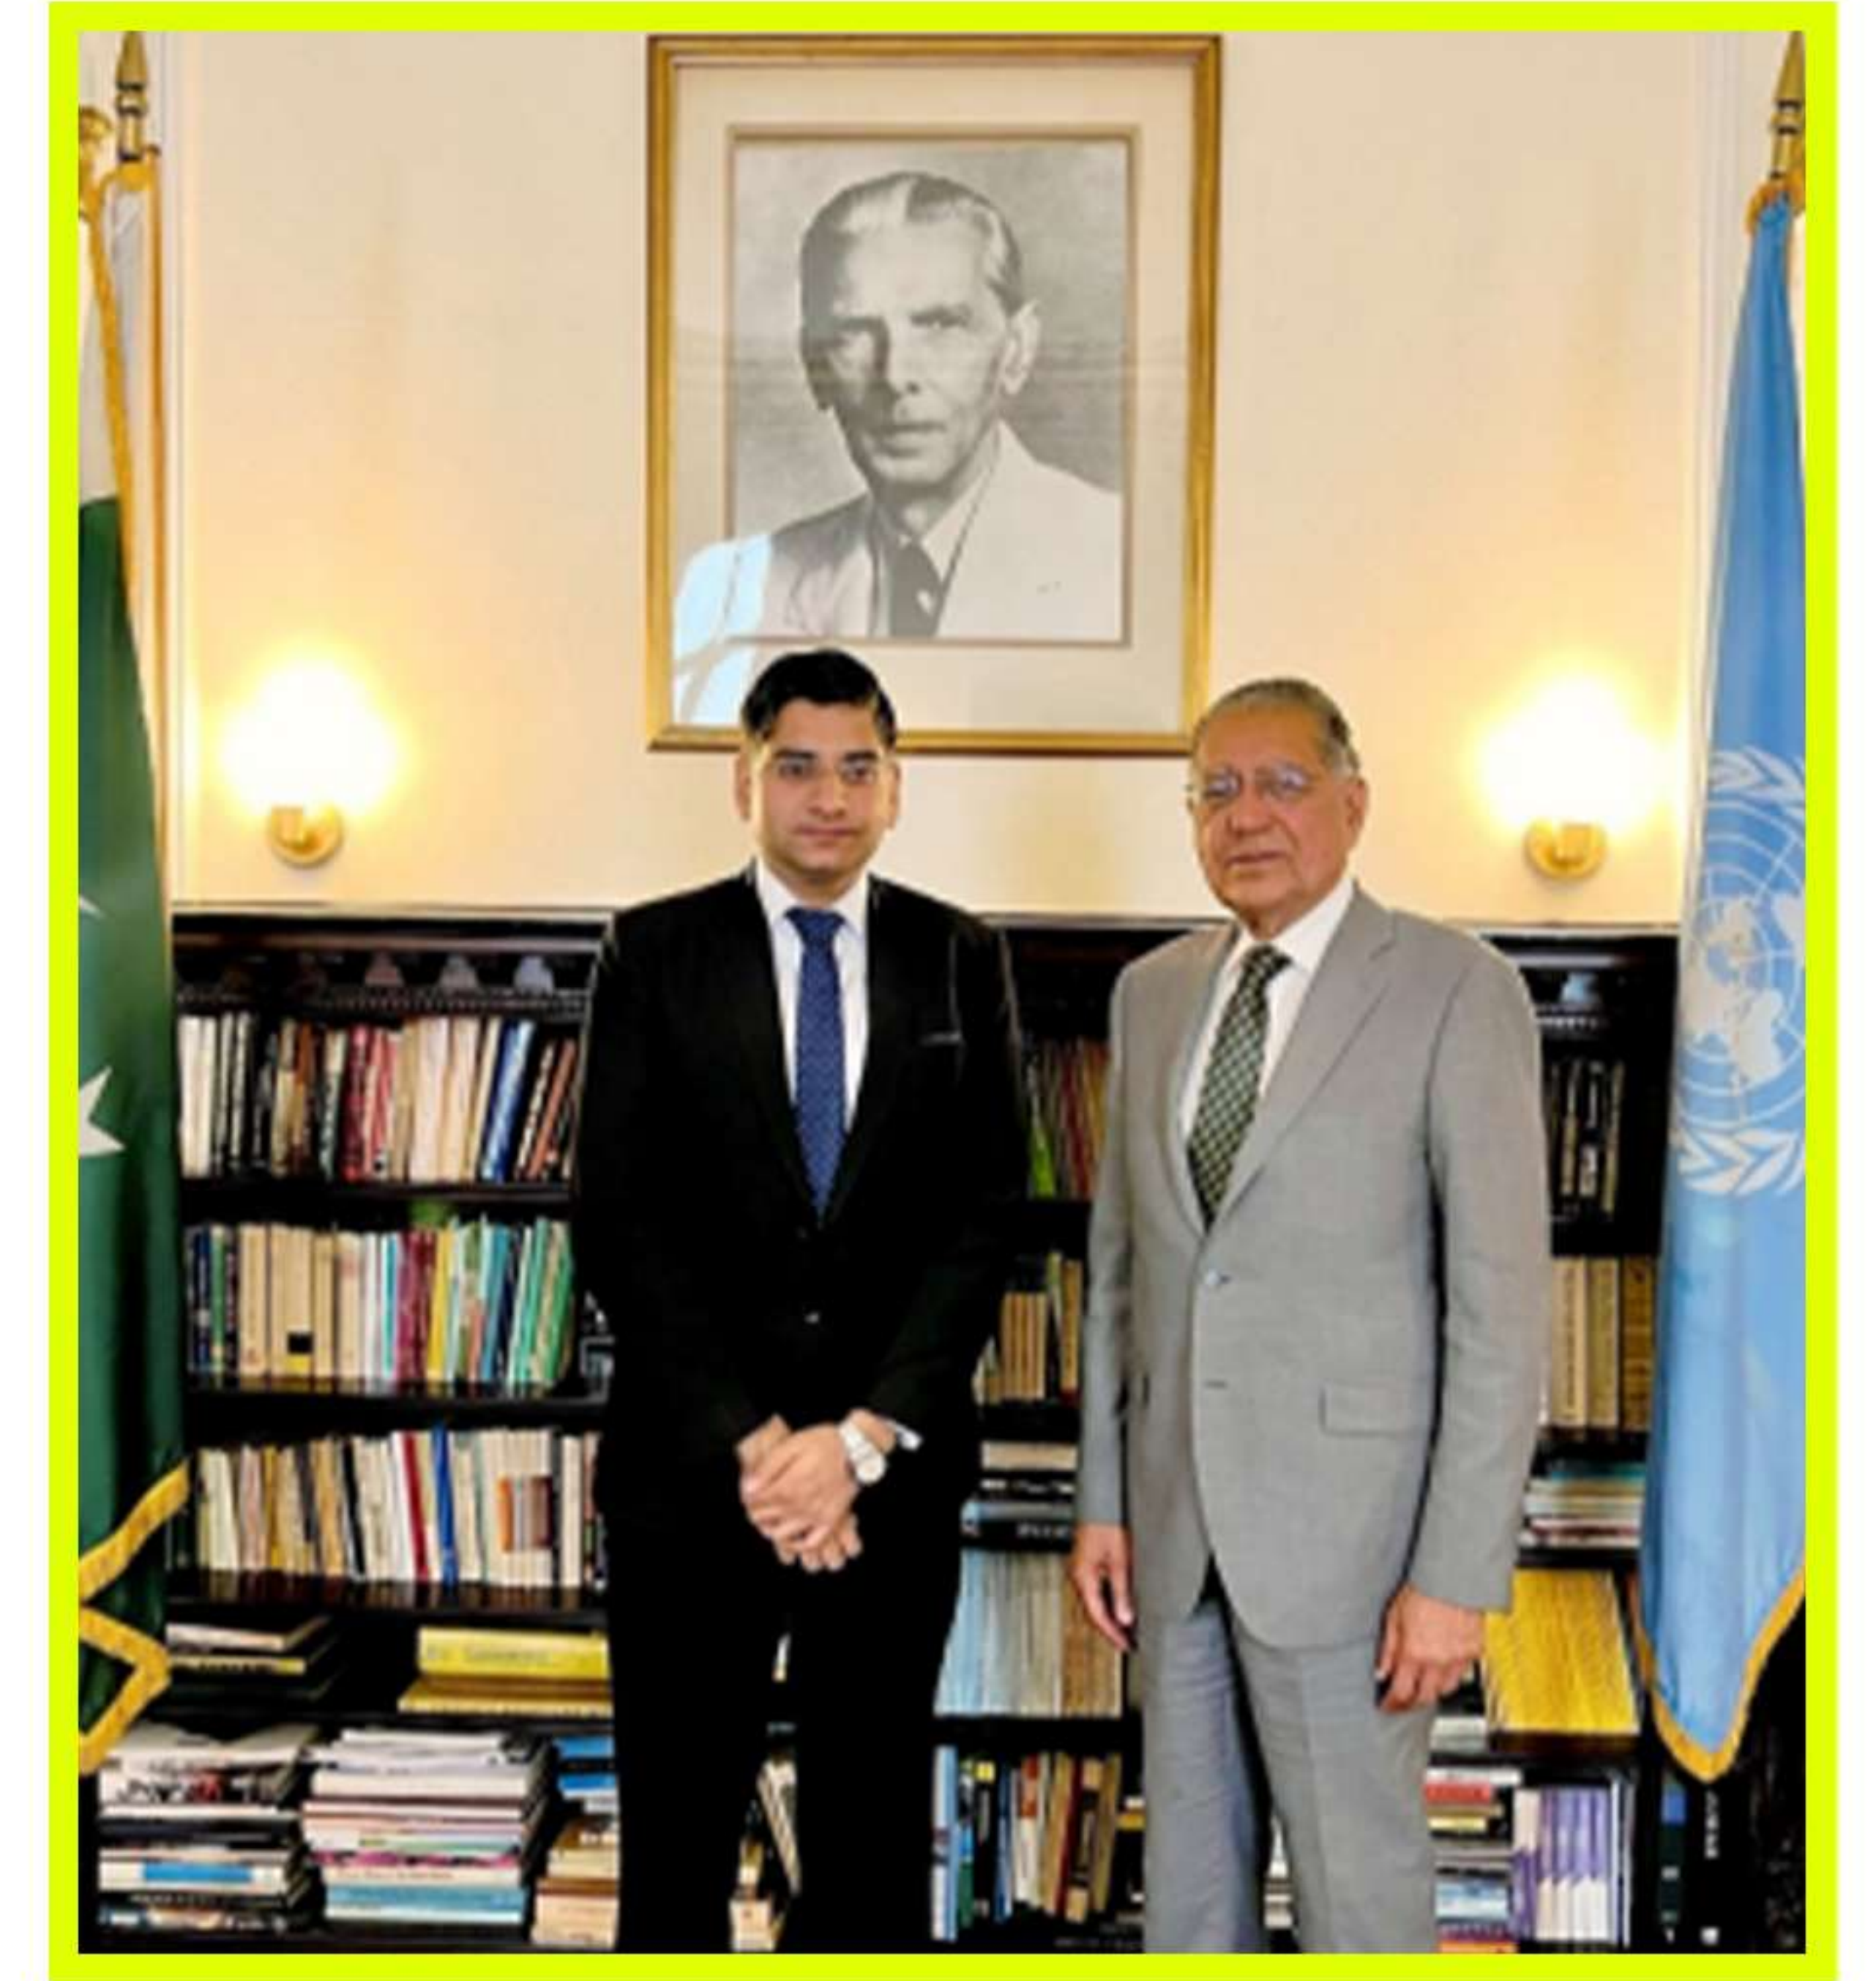

Bakhtawar Mahmood – VNR

Permanent Representative\Ambassador – Pakistan Mission to United Nations

Ubaid ur Rehman Qureshi, President of the Youth Parliament of Pakistan (YPP), visited Pakistan House in New York to meet with Pakistan's Permanent Representative to the United Nations, Excellency Ambassador Munir Akram. The discussion centered on the vital role of youth in global diplomacy.

The honorable Ambassador shared insights into his personal journey in the Foreign Service and his extensive experience, emphasizing his responsibilities at the UN in advancing Pakistan's interests, particularly in areas such as international peace, security, and development. He highlighted the importance of engaging young leaders in global governance, stressing the potential of youth-driven initiatives to address pressing issues like climate change and sustainable development.

Ubaid Qureshi highlighted the Youth Parliament's international efforts with the Commonwealth, INGOs, and European and British institutions, aimed at empowering Pakistani youth to project a positive image of Pakistan. The Ambassador praised the global efforts of Pakistani youth and emphasized opportunities for their involvement in UN activities. Ubaid expressed gratitude to the Pakistani mission for supporting youth engagement in public diplomacy. The meeting concluded with a commitment to strengthen youth participation in global policy-making processes.

Additionally, Ubaid Qureshi, accompanied by Muhammad Ahmad, Director of the Global Peace Chain, met with Syed Shaukat Abbas Hamdani, Counselor at the Pakistan Embassy in New York. This meeting aimed to foster discussions on the issues facing overseas Pakistanis and students, while highlighting various youth initiatives, including the Kashmir issue, promoting cultural exchange, and empowering young leaders to actively contribute to Pakistan's diplomatic efforts and enhance community engagement.

Qureshi pay his gratitude and thanked to the Pakistan mission for their support and facilitation for the young people during their visit to United Nations headquarter.

Director

- United Nation Food and Agricultural Organization (FAO)

The Youth Parliament delegates met with Katherine Clyne, Director of Program, Policy, and SDGs at the UN FAO, in New York to discuss collaborative strategies for sustainable food systems and youth engagement. The conversation focused on critical areas, including climate-smart agriculture, food security, and the role of youth in advancing the SDGs, particularly SDG 2 (Zero Hunger). Discussions also explored FAO's vision and mission, highlighting opportunities for young people to engage in agricultural entrepreneurship, especially in Pakistan. Bakhtawar Mahmood highlight agricultural practices among youngsters in Pakistan.

Katherine Clyne emphasized the significance of youth-led initiatives in tackling global food challenges. Additionally, the UN FAO extended an invitation to young leaders from Pakistan to attend the upcoming World Food Forum 2024 in Italy.

Permanent Representative\Head of Mission - World Health Organization (WHO)

President Youth Parliament of Pakistan Ubaid ur Rehman Qureshi held a meeting with Mr. Stewart Simonson, Head of Mission and Representative of the World Health Organization (WHO) to the United Nations. Mr. Simonson discussed his role in advancing global health policies through collaboration with the UN, highlighting WHO's efforts in addressing critical health challenges such as pandemics, mental health, and access to healthcare.

Delegate share practices of youngsters during the pandemic COVID19 and assure the engagement of youngsters in different public health awareness related campaigns. He emphasized the importance of policy-driven solutions and the role WHO plays in providing technical expertise to nations worldwide.

President Youth Parliament of Pakistan Ubaid Ur Rehman Qureshi and Executive Member Bakhtawar Mahmood met with World Health Organization- Pakistan Representative\ Country Director Dr. Luo Dapeng and Dr. Madeleina. Delegates exchange ideas and learn about the WHO initiatives for youngsters in Pakistan.

Islamabad - President Youth Parliament of Pakistan Ubaid Qureshi and Executive Member Bakhtawar Mahmood met with WHO Country Director Dr. Luo Dapeng and Dr. Madeleina.

Director - United Nation Environment Program (UNEP)

The Youth Parliament of Pakistan delegation met with Jameel Mir, Director of UN Environment, in New York. The discussion focused on Mr. Mir's significant role in advancing global environmental policies, particularly in climate action, sustainable development, and upcoming conferences. He highlighted various UN programs that empower youth, encouraging their active participation in environmental advocacy and policymaking. Additionally, he extended invitations to the Youth Parliament for the upcoming UN Environment Assembly and COP29.

Ubaid Qureshi shared details about the Youth Parliament's climate initiatives, including COY-Pakistan, the SDGs Summit, Clean and Green campaigns, and youth-led academic research related to sustainable and smart cities. He discussed opportunities mainly including internships, fellowships, and youth-driven initiatives, enabling young leaders to engage in global environmental diplomacy for the promotion of Sustainable development goals.

Overseas Pakistani – Young Leaders

The President of the Youth Parliament Ubaid Qureshi held a productive meeting with the Director of the Global Peace Chain Muhammad Ahmad and a Political Fellow of the Conservative Party Tahir Awan during their visit to the USA. The discussion focused on youth engagement in global peace initiatives and the importance of fostering political awareness among young leaders followed by the insight analysis about upcoming election in United State of America (USA). They explored potential collaborations to promote peace-building activities and youth participation in governance at International level.

The meeting concluded with a commitment to further dialogue and partnership opportunities aimed at empowering youth and enhancing their roles in shaping peaceful societies.

CONTACT DETAILS

Office Address: 50 bridge colony Lahore Cantt, Lahore Pakistan | 042 36676123

President \ Head of Delegation: Mr. Ubaid Qureshi (President): +92-313-0548969

www.youthparliament.org.pk

youthparliament2005@gmail.com
info@youthparliament.org.pk

@youth_ppk

Official: @YPP_Pak
Chairman: @AbrarUIHaqPK
President: @Ubaid_Qu

@YouthPPakistan
@youthparliamentajk
@youth.parliament.Pakistann